THIS REC TRADE TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF SALE ("AGREEMENT") IS BETWEEN AECO ENERGY PTE LTD (UEN 202041483K) ("AECO ENERGY") AND THE CUSTOMER.

1.0 Agreement

1.1 The Transaction shall be governed by the Agreement unless the parties enter into a separate agreement with the intention that it will govern the Services. Customer's signature on the Proposal, issuance of a purchase order pursuant to the Proposal, or payment of the Price or any portion thereof, whichever is earlier, shall be deemed as Customer's acceptance of the Proposal and the Agreement. Any other terms or conditions not included in the Proposal and this Agreement are hereby rejected and shall not bind AECO Energy in any way.

2.0 Transaction

2.1 AECO Energy agrees to supply and Customer agrees to purchase Renewable Energy Certificates (RECs) as listed and in accordance with the details specified in the Proposal.

2.2 On the Transfer Date, AECO Energy agrees to transfer the RECs to Customer's REC Registry Account.

2.3 Title and risk of the transferred RECs will be passed from AECO Energy to the Customer when the RECs are transferred to Customer's REC Registry Account.

3.0 Failure to Deliver and Accept

3.1 If AECO Energy fails to ensure the transfer of the Quantity of RECs (whether in whole or in part) in accordance with the terms of this Agreement, and such failure is not remedied within ten (10) days of the Transfer Date or is not excused by an event of Force Majeure or the other Party's non-performance, AECO Energy shall pay the Customer as compensation for damages an amount for such quantity of undelivered RECs equal to the product of: (a) the amount, if positive, by which the price per REC, at which the Customer acting in a commercially reasonable manner is or would be able to purchase or otherwise acquire in the market the quantity of undelivered RECs exceeds the Price; and (b) the quantity of undelivered RECs. For purposes of this Clause 3.1, third party dependencies (e.g., non-delivery to AECO Energy of the RECs by the identified supplier) shall be considered as Force Majeure.

3.2 If Customer fails to accept the Quantity of RECs (whether in whole or in part) in accordance with this Agreement and such failure is not remedied within ten (10) days of the Transfer Date or is not excused by an event of Force Majeure or the other Party's non-performance, the Customer shall pay AECO Energy as compensation for damages an amount for such quantity of non-accepted RECs equal to the product of: (a) the amount, if positive, by which the Price exceeds the price at which AECO Energy is or would be able to sell the quantity of non-accepted RECs in the market acting in a commercially reasonable manner; and (b) the quantity of the non-accepted RECs.

3.3 Amounts that are due according to this Clause shall be invoiced and paid in accordance with Clause 4 (Invoicing and Payment).

4.0 Invoicing and Payment

4.1 Customer shall pay AECO Energy the Price set out in the Proposal and/or Invoice on the Due Date, or if no Due Date has been provided, in ten (10) days after invoice date, to AECO Energy's Bank Account, free of any expenses and without any withholdings and deductions. Payment shall be remitted by bank transfer.

4.2 As from the Due Date, AECO Energy shall be entitled to charge default interest at a rate of one percent (1%) per month of delay based on invoiced amount until full payment has been made. Interest may be charged from, and including, the Due Date and to, and excluding, the date of complete payment.

4.3 If a Party, in good faith, disputes the accuracy of an invoice, it shall on or before the Due Date provide a written explanation of the basis for the dispute and shall pay the undisputed amount invoiced no later than the Due Date. If any amount withheld under dispute is finally determined to have been due, such withheld amount shall, at the election of the owed Party, be credited or returned to it within ten (10) days of such determination, along with interest as specified above in Clause 4.3.
